

Quarkinis

since this darn weather isn't getting any better i see no reason to starve myself into my bikini (or the weddingdress – which is even worse) so yesterday i fried curd cheese! and loved it!!

it's really easy.

2 eggs (separated)
250 g curd cheese
125 g flour
3 tablespoons milk
3 tablespoons sugar

- ➔ separate the eggs and mix yolk with the rest of the ingredients. let this mix rest for 30 mins.
- ➔ beat the egg white and add it to the cheese mix.
- ➔ deep-fry small portions of dough and serve with fresh fruit. really delicious!

have a happy week y'all!
